For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

|---|---|
| Nervous Disorders | Violent cramps in the stomach and back |
| Consumptions | Indigestion |
| Lowness of spirits | Melancholy |
| Loss of appetite | Gout in the stomach |
| Impurity of b'ood | Pains in the limbs |
| Hysteric'l affection | Relaxations, etc. |
| Inward weaknesses and debility | |

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1818.

From the National Intelligencer.

A NEW WORK.

David Hoffman, esq. professor of law, in the University of Maryland, has lately published a book, entitled "A Course of Legal Study," respectfully addressed to the students of law in the United States.

He has given first a general, then a particular syllabus, which claim the attention of the legal student. At the head of the books to be studied he places the Bible. The observations of the learned professor on the importance of this volume to the lawyer, must prove highly gratifying to the friends of correct principles, and the sincere christian.

"The Bible," says he, "forms a very natural introduction to this course, as recording a form of government and law, originating in the great legislator of the universe; whose pleasure it was to enjoin, by a direct commandment of his will, those duties, and declare those obligations, which, when reasoning on the nature and relations of man, we have concluded to be such as are the dictates of the law of nature.

"The purity and sublimity of the morals of the Bible have at no time, and in no country, been questioned; it is the foundation of the common law of every christian nation. The christian religion is a part of the common law of the land, and, as such, should receive certainly a considerable portion of the lawyers' attention. In vain do we look among the writings of the ancient philosophers for a system of moral law comparable with that of the Bible. How meagre and lifeless are the 'Ethics' of Aristotle, the 'Morals' of Seneca, the 'Memorabilia' of Xenophon, the 'Officia' of Cicero, compared with it! From the Bible, says Soame Jenyns, may be collected a system in which every moral precept founded on reason is carried to a higher degree of purity and perfection than in any other of the wisest philosophers of preceding ages. Every moral precept founded on false principles is totally omitted, and many new principles added, particularly corresponding with the new object of this religion. If treatises on morals should be the first which are placed in the hands of the student, and the structure of his legal education raised on the broad and solid foundation of ethics, what books so proper to be thoroughly studied with this view as the Bible?

"But the religion and morals of the Bible do not form the only claim which this inestimable volume possesses on the earnest attention of the legal student — There is much law in it, and a great deal which sheds more than a glimmering light on a variety of legal topics." Here the learned professor enumerates several subjects of a legal character on which the scriptures are calculated to throw light. He then proceeds to point out the superior eloquence and sublimity of style which entitle this book to the particular attention of all who are designed for public speaking. To illustrate this point he extracts the sublimest passage in Homer, and compares it with some passages from the Psalms of David; after which he says,

"All comment on the comparative merit of these passages is superfluous."

In the conclusion of his remarks on this first title in his syllabus, he observes,

"In the morals of the New Testament we have the fullness of light, the radiance of divine truth. The history of Christ and the Apostles are in the highest degree interesting, and the style peculiarly good. The parables of our divine master for ease, simplicity and aptness, have never been equalled—finally, this, in common with the old testament, contains more of the utile et dulce than any other composition.

"We have been thus particular on the subject of the utility of the Bible to the lawyer from a deep conviction that its morality, history, and law, cannot fail of being eminently serviceable to him: from our observation that young lawyers frequently read any other book but this—and lastly, from the fact that nearly all the distinguished lawyers with whom we have been acquainted through the medium of books, personally or otherwise, have not only professed the highest veneration for biblical learning, but were themselves considerably versed in it."

A MERRY BANKRUPT.

The following advertisement is copied from the Rochester (Genesee county) Gazette. The bankrupt, on the occasion of stopping payment, doubtless feels in a merrier mood than most of his creditors:

Look out for Breakers!

As it looks rather squally ahead, I have concluded to round to and bring my ship to anchor; so all hands ahoy! Mate, boatswain, cook's steward and all others concerned in the prize money, be careful to assemble in captain Mack's cabin, on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock, to hear my final determination.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, February 5, 1818.

An amendment of the Senate to the Appropriation Bill was yesterday disagreed to by a majority of 125 to 82

This and business of an uninteresting nature took up the House to so late an hour that Major General St. Clair's bill lay over to this morning. It is hoped that this day the business will be terminated to the satisfaction of every good heart, and that the veteran will be sent home with some reparation for his goadings.

At a meeting of the President and Directors of the Bank of the United States, on the 27th ult. the following gentlemen were duly elected Directors for the office of Discount and Deposit at Washington, for the ensuing year—viz.

George Graham
Richard Cutts
Thomas Munroe
Buckner Thruston
R. C. Weightman
William Brent
Thomas T. Tucker
Walter Smith
Richard Parrot
George Taylor
Edward W. Duvall
Newton Keene
John Peter

And at a meeting of the Directors for the Office of Discount and Deposit, at Washington, on the 3d instant, GEO. GRAHAM, was duly re-elected President thereof. [Nat. Intel.

From the Detroit Gazette, Jan. 9.

IMPORTANT.

We are informed that the Secretary of War has communicated to gov. Cass the determination of the President, that the Indian trade within the territory of the United States shall be confined to citizens (native or naturalized) of the United States. Instructions have accordingly been issued to the different agents of this superintendency to license no person to trade with the Indians who is not a citizen.

This decisive measure ensures to our own people exclusively an important branch of trade within our own territories. It will soon be seen how fallacious were the opinions, that sufficient American capital could not be found to supply the demands of this trade. Its effects in a political point of view, and upon the minds of the Indians, must be productive of beneficial consequences; and taken in connexion with the commanding attitude of the United States, cannot fail of ensuring a continuance of peace upon this frontier.

From the Boston Palladium, Jan. 29.

We have verbal accounts from the Cape of Good Hope, to Nov. 16, which state, that an English whale ship of 6 or 700 tons was discharging oil in the Bay; that on the night of the 12th or 13th a small party of convicts on Robin Island, being joined by the guard then on duty, made their escape and got on board the above vessel, immediately weighed her anchors, and made sail; that after getting outside they put the captain and his crew (with the exception of the mate) into a boat, and sent them on shore before daybreak; that the ship was then made off with, and that no accounts of her had been received as late as the 15th. There were several hundred convicts on the island—the principle instigator of the above daring plot was stated to be a young man who had been captain's clerk of a British frigate, and who had been transported for forgery.

It was not supposed the above men had any other object in view than to make their escape from the Cape, and to proceed to some place where they could abandon the ship and regain their liberty.

In the bad weather which we have had here, a large number of boats, laden with cotton, collected in this vicinity, and coming in together, have reduced the price of cotton to 32½ cents; and if purchasers keep back for a few days, we expect to see it down to 30. Flour has got up to $10 for sweet—6 50 for sour.—Exchange on London 2 per cent. discount. [ibid.

Extract of a letter from Rotterdam, Dec. 3, to a house in Boston.

A direct conveyance gives us an opportunity to inform you of the state of markets here. The demand for ashes continues to be very small—the quotations support with difficulty. Coffee is steady; before spring no material alteration is expected—the stock on hand is not large, and at present prices occasional purchases are made. No supplies of cotton have arrived, and none is left in the market—the quotations would be easily realized. Dyewood is a shade better;—ginger unsaleable; hides plenty, and without demand; indigo in good request—258 chests imported from Bengal have been sold at once at about the quotations. Nothing is doing at present in whale oil; black pepper dull and plenty; rice in great request—Carolina sells as quoted; East India 72 a 74; of the former description little is on hand. Sugars have declined, and continue to be quite heavy; about 120 hhds. ordinary Muscovades only fetched 12 1-4. By paying a custom house duty the tea trade will soon be rendered free; the law respecting this branch of commerce is to be discussed in a few days by our legislators. Maryland tobacco supports; best Virginia is still very scarce; a cargo of about 400 hhds. tolerable middling quality, was sold a few days ago at 9 3-8—inferior kinds are neglected, as also Carolina. Georgia and Kentucky. Stems have declined a little; gin continues to be very high; cheese is much inquired after. The reduction in the Exchange on London is considerable, and much in favor of shipments this way.

We yesterday received (through the post-office) Halifax papers to Jan. 10th, marked "per schr. Critic, Jefferys."—On the 10th flour was quoted at 50 a 60s per lb.; rice 30 a 35 per cwt. scarce; Indian meal 35 a 40 per bbl.

A decision has taken place in the admiralty court at Halifax favorable to a vessel called the Batt, which was condemned at Tortola in 1801, and the condemnation reversed in the high court in 1804. The prize agent had failed, and this last was a proceeding against the owners of the capturing privateer, the Nelson. [ibid.

From the Norfolk Beacon, January 30.

We have been favored by a commercial friend, with a hasty perusal of Bermuda papers to the 17th instant, inclusive, received by the British brig Frances Russel, arrived yesterday, in nine days from that Island; the latest dates are almost exclusively filled with details of the death of the Princess Charlotte, for which event great sorrow is expressed, and the papers wear the insignia of mourning. A paper of the 10th contains extracts from the proceedings of the Legislatures of the Bahamas and Jamaica, on the subject of instructions recently received from the Lords Commissioners of the British Treasury, authorizing the most exorbitant exactions, in the form of Custom House Fees, upon the exports of the West India Islands generally. These measures of the British Treasury, militating against the interests of those Islands, have met with the most prompt opposition from their respective Legislatures, who expressly disclaim any right on the part of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, to legislate for them in matters affecting so vitally their immediate interests, and upon subjects too, on which their own representatives must be supposed to possess a sounder discretion.

The following resolutions of the Bahamas, will shew the temper in which this usurpation of power is viewed in those Islands, and the tone of the Jamaica assembly is still more imperative—a resolution of which declares the instructions of the Treasury illegal, and that they ought to be resisted. We will endeavour to give the extracts at length in our next.

Wednesday, October 29.

The house went into committee on the state of the colony, when the chairman reported the following resolutions, which were agreed to by the House.

Resolved, that the fees of his Majesty's Customs in these Islands, having been established by the Act of the forty fifth of the King, in that case provided, the late instructions from the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, under which much larger fees are demanded and received at the several Custom-Houses in this colony, are so demanded and received contrary to law; and are the more oppressive as it is on the smaller class of vessels that this increase of charges particularly attaches; nearly the whole of the shipping of these Islands being of that class.

Resolved, therefore, that it be recommended to the House so soon as it may be at liberty to resume the exercise of its legitimate functions, to adopt such measures as may be deemed most expedient to restore the country, in this respect, to the government of law.

A letter received by the above mentioned arrival, states, that the custom house fees on American vessels have been reduced to the same rates with those exacted from British vessels.—Flour at Bermuda on the 16th inst. was at $14.

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, dated Nov. 9, 1817.

The Russian Ambassador, Tatischef, has arrived here from Madrid. He has come to receive a Russian fleet, hourly expected, and in the fleet it is said, comes one of the Emperor's brothers. The fleet consists of six sail of the line, and nine frigates, with troops, some say six thousand; the object is to take possession of Minorca, which, it appears, has been ceded by Ferdinand to the Emperor of Russia—the latter engaging to assist in conquering the Spanish Americans. It is said and generally credited, that the British Ambassador, Sir Henry Wellesley, having passed an official note to Pizarro, the Spanish Minister of State, demanding an explanation of reports which he had heard on the subject, received for answer, that the Spanish government was astonished that a British Ambassador could, for a moment, give sufficient weight to idle reports, so as to make them the subject of an official communication—that there was no truth in them. Now that the business can no longer be concealed, being ready for execution, it is said that in reality Pizarro knew nothing of the business, but that the whole affair was managed directly between the Russian Ambassador and Ferdinand. It will be remembered that a similar occurrence took place with respect to the King's marriage.

Cevallos, the then minister of state, was negociating the marriage of the king with an Austrian Princess, and actually Prince Kaunitz came on to Madrid to sign the articles; and when in Madrid, he found every thing had been agreed on through the Minister of the Indies months before, and that Cevallos was totally ignorant of the fact. The Secretary of State is therefore a mere cypher, only intended to amuse the foreign Ministers.

We know not what the consequence will be, but it is generally supposed that the British Cabinet cannot view with indifference such extraordinary measures—Spanish transports with 350 men are all in actual readiness to join the Russian Squadron the moment they appear: their destiny is unknown. Some however suppose they are bound to the Mediteranean to occupy the territory ceded to the sister of Ferdinand, the late Queen of Etruria.

The privateers continue their depredations in this neighborhood, and capture almost every thing coming from Spanish America.

Cadiz is in a most deplorable situation, its commerce entirely destroyed, and great misery prevails here, and in the Island, where captains of the Royal men of war, and Royal brigadeers are seen begging alms in the streets.

Such are the glories of the present reign and system of things.

SPANISH AMERICA.

The following Resolutions were offered in the Senate of Kentucky by the Hon. Mr. Bledsoe:—

Resolved, by the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky, That the people of this state view with the most lively emotion the patriotic struggles of their South American republican brethren, to throw off and break in pieces the yoke of Spanish despotism—to take their stand among the nations of the earth—and to vindicate the exercise of those rights of self government which the God of nature has given to man, as his unalienable birth-right.

That while this legislature, and the people whom they represent, fully appreciate the blessings of peace, flowing from the observance of a just neutrality, as to the conflicts between other powers—they are fully sensible of the immense importance to the U. States, of the establishment of the independence of the South American colonies, as respects the probable commercial and political relations between the two portions of the same great continent.

That neither interest nor duty on the part of the United States, as respects old Spain, exists to induce them to take one single step towards favoring that power, or strengthening the rod of oppression, which there is reason to hope her colonies are about wresting from her hands for ever.

That it is, in our opinion, wise policy, as well as justice, for the government of the U. States to acknowledge the independence of such of the former Spanish colonies of South America, as shall have shown or shall show themselves capable of vindicating and maintaining the rights of self government.

That the strictest regard to neutrality between the parties, neither requires, nor authorises, the arrest or detention of foreign men, vessels or munitions of war passing through our country, or touching at our ports, destined to assist either party.

That if the general government of the United States is prepared to take a side in this contest, the many unredressed wrongs, and the outrageous insults of old Spain to this government, together with the strong claims of suffering humanity upon our sympathy, leave no room to doubt which side the free people of the only republic on earth are prepared to take.

Resolved, That copies of the foregoing resolutions be transmitted to the President of the U. States, and to each of our senators and representatives in congress, to be submitted to that body.

And the following resolutions have been proposed in the house of representatives, by Mr. Bibb:—

Resolved, by the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky—1st, That the liberty of nations is derived from God and nature, and is not the gift of kings or potentates.

2d. That all just power is derived from the people; the choice of forms of government belongs of right to them, and those (or their successors) who constitute one form, may abrogate it.

3d. That in all just governments, the good of the governed is the end to be accomplished; and the people upon whom each particular government operates, are the only fit judges of the performance of the ends for which the government was instituted.

4th. That the general revolt of a nation against oppression, and in vindication of their own liberty, cannot be justly called a rebellion.

5th. That the struggle of the patriots of S. America for the rights of self government is justified by the laws of God and nature, and sanctioned by the unalienable rights of man.

6th. That the success of those who are struggling for the liberty and independence of South America, is a consummation devoutly to be wished, highly interesting to the friends of freedom and humanity in general, and calls for the deepest sympathy and accordance on the part of the people of these United States of North America.

7th. That it is the opinion of this general assembly, that such of the provinces of South America as have declared themselves free and independent, and have shewn a reasonable ability to maintain their independence, ought forthwith to be acknowledged by the general government of the U. States of North America, as sovereign and independent powers, to be treated as such, and introduced to the other sovereign powers of the earth; and generally, that all the rights, countenance and hospitality should be given by these U. States, to those so acknowledged sovereign powers of South America, which by the laws of nations may be justly and peaceably afforded by the people and magistracy of one neutral nation, to the people and magistracy of another nation in war or in peace.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be transmitted to the President of the U. States, and to each of the senators and representatives of this state in the congress of the United States; and that the acting governor be requested to transmit them accordingly.

THEATRE.

The Managers are under the disagreeable necessity of again claiming the public indulgence; but when the cause is known, they trust that without further preface it will plead their apology.

Mrs. Entwisle has been suddenly and seriously attacked with a violent indisposition; so much so as to prevent her appearance for some time. TIMOUR THE TARTAR will, however, without fail, be presented on Saturday next, and Mrs. Durang will, in the interim, prepare herself for the part of Zorilda. The temporary delay will be attended with this advantage, that several of the pieces of machinery which were not quite finished will be entirely ready, and the spectacle elicit a much greater degree of splendor and magnificence.

On SATURDAY EVENING. FEB. 7, (And no postponement on any account whatever)

Will be presented the grand spectacle of

TIMOUR the TARTAR,

WITH ENTIRE NEW SCENERY, MACHINERY, DRESSES AND DECORATIONS.

The scenery painted by Mr. Grain and assistants, the machinery by Messrs. Varden, Ashe and assistants.

Act 1. The interior of Timour's Fortress, with a BRIDGE in the back-ground—on one side of the stage a TOWER in which Agib is confined. A MAGNIFICENT PROCESSION of the Tartars over the Bridge on HORSEBACK, conducting ZORILDA, who is mounted on a Courser richly caparisoned; the COURSER KNEELS and Zorilda dismounts.

Scene 3. A SPIRITED TOURNAMENT. Timour and Zorilda enter and seat themselves on thrones to witness the who at that moment enter the LISTS ON HORSEBACK. Kerim's Horse takes part in the combat, and drags Sanballat to the ground. Kerim dismounts and proposes to renew the combat on foot—the horses are led away and the fight begins. Kerim falls and loses his sword; his rival rushes to despatch him: at that instant,

Kerim's Horse interposes to save his Master.

Sanballat in fury stabs the Horse,

Who falls and expires at his Master's feet.

Act 2. A splendid BRIDAL CHAMBER, belonging to Timour.

The Last Scene represents TIMOUR'S FORTRESS BY MOONLIGHT. A TREMENDOUS CATARACT & WATERFALL over which is an arched bridge. One side of the stage represents the EXTERIOR of TIMOUR'S FORTRESS. A variety of smaller Towers and Terraces appear in the perspective.

During this scene, the Georgians and Mingrelians engage the Tartars on horse and foot. Timour himself ON HORSEBACK appears and encourages his troops—he becomes personally engaged, and is dismounted—he is pursued and not having time to enter a PORTCULLIS leading to the interior of his castle, he climbs the battlements, and reaches in safety the TURRET'S TOP—he brings forth Zorilda and threatens to destroy her unless Agib, who has escaped to the Georgians, is restored to him—she breaks from him and runs to the bridge, from which she leaps into the water—Agib on horseback rushes after her.—The Georgians with a BATTERING-RAM make a breach in Timour's castle—ALL THE HORSES ENTER.—At the conclusion of the General Engagement, Agib having recovered his mother, returns with her on horseback. TIMOUR IS OVERTHROWN, but Zorilda spares his life at the intercession of Agib and Oglou.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
